

Year 11
Half Term 1	Half Term 2	Half Term 3	Half Term 4	Half Term 5	Half Term 6
Numéro vacances Purpose: - To enable students to talk about holidays and travel experiences in French, including destinations, transport, accommodation, and activities. - They will also explore cultural aspects of the French-speaking world through festivals, food, and regions. - This unit strengthens students' ability to use a range of tenses and compare experiences, enhancing both their linguistic competence and cultural understanding.	Notre planète Purpose: - To develop students' ability to discuss global and social issues in French, including the environment, sustainability, natural disasters, and social responsibility. - This unit encourages critical thinking and emotional engagement, while providing the linguistic tools to express complex opinions and talk about new technologies and hypothetical situations. Overview of the knowledge and skills covered in this unit: Students learn essential vocabulary related to: - Geography and the	Mon petit monde à moi Purpose: - To develop students' ability to describe their local area, types of housing, and community life in French. - They will also be able to ask for and give directions, compare places, and discuss changes over time. - Students will explore both their own and French-speaking communities, encouraging cultural awareness and reflection on urban versus rural life. Overview of the knowledge and skills covered in this unit: Students learn essential vocabulary related to: - Places in town and	Mes projets d'avenir Purpose: - The purpose of this unit is to enable students to discuss future plans, dreams, and career paths. - They will explore education and work-related vocabulary, talk about job preferences, and talk about travelling and earning money. - This unit supports students in setting personal goals while building confidence using a range of time frames. Overview of the knowledge and skills covered in this unit: Students learn essential vocabulary related to: - Jobs and careers - Ambitions and hopes	Revision Purpose: - To consolidate all previously learned content and prepare students for their final GCSE French exams. - Students will focus on revision of key topics, grammar, vocabulary, and exam techniques across the four language skills: Listening, Speaking, Reading, and Writing. - Students will develop exam confidence by practising past papers, mock assessments, timed tasks, and role-play scenarios. - Emphasis is placed on applying language in exam conditions, improving accuracy, and building resilience under pressure.	Students will be sitting their External GCSE Exams this Half Term.

Overview of the knowledge and skills covered in this unit: Students learn essential vocabulary related to: - Types of holidays and destinations - Travel plans, transport, and accommodation - Holiday activities and experiences - Festivals in French-speaking countries - Reviewing and booking holiday accommodation Grammar structures covered include: - The conditional tense - In + country - In + town - Perfect tense of modal verbs - Si + present and simple future tenses - Using the perfect and imperfect tenses together - Superlative	climate - The environment and sustainability - Pollution, recycling, energy use, and transport - Day-to-day actions to protect the environment - Natural disasters and climate change - Future hopes and global responsibility Grammar structures covered include: - The comparative and superlative - The passive voice - The nous form imperative - En + present participle - Être en train de + inf - Venir de + inf	types of housing - Asking for and understanding directions - Shopping for clothes - Describing their ideal home - Environmental and social issues affecting towns Grammar structures covered include: - Demonstrative adjectives - Y before the verb - Prepositions with à and de - Adjectives before the noun - Questions in different tenses - Depuis + present tense - Si clauses	for the future - Advantages and disadvantages of different professions - Travelling and earning money - Future study and travel plans Grammar structures covered include: - Three different ways of talking about the future - Verbs that take être in the perfect tense - Infinitives as nouns - Verbs followed by à or de + infinitive	Overview of the knowledge and skills covered in this unit: Students revise essential vocabulary and topics from Modules 1–8, including: - Identity and culture: digital life, free time, family and friends - Local area, holiday, and travel - School and future aspirations - Global and social issues - Lifestyle, food, and health - Work, career, and ambitions Grammar revision includes: - All key tenses: present, perfect, imperfect, near future, simple future, conditional - Verb conjugations: regular and irregular, reflexive, modal, and impersonal verbs - Agreement rules: adjectives, nouns, and verbs - Opinion structures with infinitives and complex sentences - Comparatives, superlatives, pronouns, connectives, and negatives
--	---	--	--	---	--